FUSE – For the third year running the society once again took part in the FUSE Festival that took place in Beacon Park on 10th, 11th and 12th July.

This year we held workshops on the Saturday including painting, air dry clay and print making. On the Sunday we held an exhibition with 12 members of the society exhibiting artwork.

Alongside the exhibition 8 members of the society demonstrated their own techniques throughout the day and again both days were well attended with sales of cards, prints and one of the artworks from the exhibition

I would like to thank all members that helped out during the weekend to make our participation in this event a success. And we have already been invited to take part again next year on the 9th, 10th and 11th July put the date in your diary.

Below are some images from the exhibition and photos of the artwork produced by members of the society that demonstrated on the Sunday.

Kind regards,
Stuart Burn
